Artists & Makers Studios Exhibits

NOVA Printmakers: The Painterly Print

(Rockville, MD) – Artists & Makers Studios in Rockville will exhibit “The Painterly Print” an exploration of texture, color and subject matter expressed through the creative utilization of various printmaking techniques. The opening reception will be held 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, Friday, August 7, 2015. Curated by Kelli Sincock, founder of the NOVA Printmakers collective, each of the participating NOVA artists was hand selected for their expressive interpretations utilizing both traditional and new printmaking methodologies.

“Nature holds the beautiful, for the artist who has the insight to extract it. Thus, beauty lies even in humble, perhaps ugly things, and the ideal, which bypasses or improves on nature, may not be truly beautiful in the end.” Albrecht Durer

The NOVA Printmakers is a collective of printmakers located in the DC/Maryland/VA Metro area who are dedicated to the history, preservation, exploration, education and presentation of Printmaking, Book Arts, Letterpress and Papermaking. The NOVA Printmakers’ new home base at Artists & Makers Studios will allow the collective to host workshops and events in one central location.

Artists & Makers Studios, established in October 2014 by artist and arts community builder Judith HeartSong, is located at 11810 Parklawn Dr, Rockville, MD 20852. The facility is growing by 40% in its first year of operation and is now home to 54 resident artists. A&M Studios is dedicated to providing a supportive and vibrant environment for artists to realize their creative goals - through studio practice, collaboration, education, opportunities, networking and connecting with the community beyond our doors.
