Artists & Makers Studios Presents

Be Still with Sheryl Massaro & Coriolana Simon

The Dress as Icon with Alexandra Michaels

Revisoning the Flip Doll: Exploring Our Connections curated by Erika Cleveland

(Rockville, MD) – Artists & Makers Studios on Parklawn in Rockville is proud to present three gallery exhibits for the month of February along with artists' open studios. "Be Still" with Sheryl Massaro and Coriolana Simon explores the still life through their painting and photography. "The Dress as Icon" with Alexandra Michaels takes on the universal symbol for women with mixed media paintings that contain within them an aspect of female experiences. "Revisoning the Flip Doll: Exploring Our Connections" with Erika Cleveland, juried artists, and flip dolls created by women at the N. Street Homeless shelter as part of an ongoing series of workshops - re-imagines the flip doll to show commonalities despite differences, and to explore all the ways in which people are united. Words out Loud in the Compass Atelier, from 7-8pm with Philip Wexler, Roger Bradbury and Jason Gebhardt will be followed by an open mic. Resident artists' open studios will round out the evening for visitors at Parklawn.
