Artists & Makers Studios Parklawn Re-Opens to the Public in December with New Art Programming and Open Studios

(Rockville, MD) – Artists & Makers Studios on Parklawn Drive in Rockville is delighted to re-open to the public starting with festive December exhibits and Open Studios. December 4th from 11am – 3pm will be the official kick-off event for Winter exhibits – which will normally be held every First Saturday of the month. Enjoy a gorgeous exhibit titled “Celebrate” with Resident Artists, invited artist David R. Daniels – exhibit curated by Cathy Hirsh, and Gallery 209 Artists exhibiting all their new work as they join Resident Artists at the Parklawn property. Additionally, “Beauty Of The Southwest” is a one-day-only pop-up exhibition of artwork created by Compass Atelier workshop artists this past summer in New Mexico. The show will feature more than 50 original paintings inspired by the sublime beauty of the American Southwest.

Award winning artist David R. Daniels brings his spectacular watercolors to A&M for the month of December. To know David is to know his Art. What the observer sees in David’s paintings is what he feels in his heart. Capturing the spirit of nature and interpreting its beauty through his vision is what David loves most about making art. The medium of watercolor is surprisingly versatile, which feeds into his drive to experiment with materials and methods.

The Resident Artists’ exhibit and David Daniels’ exhibit will run from Wednesday, December 1st through Friday December 24th, 2021. Gallery 209’s exhibit will run from December 1st through January 3rd. Viewing hours are 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, Monday-Saturday, and Sundays by chance or appointment.
