Artists & Makers Studios – Oro Valley, AZ
“Seeing With My Heart” Solo Exhibition by artist Harrie Handler

(Oro Valley, AZ) – Artists and Makers Studios in Oro Valley announces their latest exhibit, "Seeing With My Heart" paintings by Harrie Handler. Harrie is an award-winning painter based in Tucson. With an extensive background in art, education, and photography, she studied with photographers Jack Welpott, Todd Walker, and Harold Jones and was inspired by their work. Her volunteer work at the UA Center for Creative Photography allowed her the opportunity to meet Ansel Adams and other outstanding photographers. Harrie taught photography and art for twenty-eight years in addition to leading various interior design projects

Harrie’s paintings are inspired by what she sees in water, clouds, peeling paint, shadows, and ordinary objects. She expresses her unique appreciation of beauty in her art. Harrie is a member of the Southern Arizona Watercolor Guild (SAWG), Contemporary Artist Society (CAS), Southern Arizona Artist Guild (SAAG), International Society of Acrylic Painters (ISAP), Contemporary Artists of Southern Arizona (CASA), and the San Diego Museum of Art Artists Guild (SDMAAG).
